Children's Meeting Place in cooperation with the United Nations Environment Programme

VM i Samarbete World Championship in Cooperation Stockholm May 28 – June 3 2006

Seminar Program What we do today will be the children's future May 31 – June 2

The World Championship in Cooperation invites you that are responsible for the future of children and youth to a unique seminar program. Speakers with world reputation inspire you and give you courage to make changes. They give you the tools you need to go from ideas to action.

How do we create the best conditions for new thinking in the community and business world? How can you as a teacher, civil servant or business leader hold on to new ideas, think in new ways and at the same time be a part of a living and sustainable development? At the seminar "What we do today will be the children's future" several world class speakers will guide you to new opportunities and inspire you to see new perspectives. The leading themes are creativity, innovation and entrepreneurship. Children are creative, innovative and good entrepreneurs – if we allow them to be.

Thanks to you the creations, ideas, questions, dreams and hopes presented by the children at the World Championship in Cooperation can continue to grow at home – in the school, the organisations, in the political debate and in comprehensive plans of action. The World Championship in Cooperation is a creative meeting between children, youth and adults, whom are all a part of the community process. In an interactive cooperation the inclination to see new things and to have courage to change is created. The will to take part in the political process, ask questions and develop the community is born.
